Defendants.	)

The July 18, 2007, Order Setting Status (Pretrial Scheduling) Conference scheduled a status conference in this case for October 1, 2007, and required the parties to file a joint status report no later than fourteen days prior to the scheduling conference. The Order further required that a status report be filed regardless of whether a joint report could be procured.<sup>1</sup> No status report was filed as ordered.

The failure of one or more of the parties to participate in the preparation of the Joint Status Report does not excuse the other parties from their obligation to timely file a status report in accordance with this Order. In the event a party fails to participate as ordered, the party timely submitting the status report shall include a declaration explaining why it was unable to obtain the cooperation of the other party or parties.

1 The parties are Ordered to Show Cause (OSC) no later than 2 4:00 p.m. on October 30, 2007, why sanctions should not be imposed
3 under Rule 16(f) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure against 4 counsel and/or the parties for the failure to file a timely status
5 report, as ordered. The written response shall state whether the 6 parties' counsel is at fault and whether a hearing is requested on the 7 OSC.<sup>2</sup> If a hearing is requested, it will be held on November 13, 8 2007, at 9:00 a.m., just prior to the status conference, which is 9 rescheduled to that date. In accordance with the requirements set 10 forth in the July 18, 2007, Order, the parties are to file a joint 11 status report no later than October 30, 2007. The joint status report 12 shall also state whether this action will be, or is in the process of 13 being, transferred to any pending multidistrict litigation. Failure
14 to respond to the OSC could result in dismissal of this action.

15 IT IS SO ORDERED.
